

Application for Sex Educators in Training

This 9-session training is meant for folks interested in a deeper understanding of sexual pleasure, sexual health, sex education and representing the mission and guiding principles of Cucci. Participants at the end of the 36-hour training will be prepared to lead these conversations, and seek out information to continue their individual and collective learning. Cucci is looking for a diverse applicant pool, and queer and trans people of color and folks with consciousness are encouraged to apply. The information you provide in this application is absolutely optional and confidential.
